

Happy Scrappy Placemats

or Happy Scrappy Placemats for the Holidays

Stitch Kitsch* by Jennifer Heynen

In this class students can make a set of four placemats to match their decor. These could be made in fall or holiday fabrics as well. Trims, buttons, and felts are additional supplies to be sold alongside of the fabrics.

Class Length:

4-6 hours (may not complete everything in class)

Class Supply List:

- Stitch Kitsch by Jennifer Heynen (page 70)
- 2 5/8 yards quilting cotton
- 36" x 42" piece of batting
- 6" x 8" scraps of fabric for flaps
- 2 yards each of 4 trims
- 12 felt or fabric scraps measuring 4" x 4"
- 12" x 12" green felt for leaves
- 4 buttons, 1" diameter
- thread

- sewing machine

Class Agenda:

1. Start by selecting fabrics and trims for the project.
2. Cut all of the flaps and mat fabric.
3. Finish one mat in class; students can continue to work on and maybe finish all of the mats.
4. Sewing the binding can be done at home.
