Pretty Maids Quilt

Page 64: The names of the last 2 fabrics and the yardage and cutting for the 2 are incorrect, and a third fabric is missing. See the attached PDF of the revised page.

3. Paying careful attention to the orientation of the seam angles, sew an A square to the bottom left corner of a unit from Step 2. See Stitch-and-Flip Corners (page 10). Then, sew an L square to the upper right corner the same way. Repeat to make 8 units.

4. Paying careful attention to the unit orientation and seam angles, sew an A square to the bottom right corner of a unit from Step 2. See Stitch-and-Flip Corners (page 10). Then, sew an L square to the upper left corner the same way. This unit is the mirror image of the units from Step 3. Repeat to make 8 units.

5. Arrange units from Step 1, 3, and 4, along with an H square, in 2 rows as shown. Sew the units into rows, and then join the rows together. Press, spinning the center seam (see Spinning Seams, page 21). Repeat to make 8 units.

6. Use a B rectangle with 2 G and 2 L squares to make a square-in-a-rectangle unit. See Stitch-and-Flip Square-in-a-Rectangle (page 12). Repeat to make 8 units.

7. Use an H, 2 E, and 2 G squares to make a square-in-a-square unit. See Stitch-and-Flip Square-in-a-Squares (page 11). Repeat to make 8 units.

8. Join units from Steps 6 and 7, along with a D rectangle, in a column. Repeat to make 8 units.

9. Arrange units from Steps 5 and 8, along with a C square, in 3 rows as shown. Sew the units into rows, and then join the rows. Repeat to make a second block.
